Wine Club's Bordeaux Collection Goes Under the Hammer on iDealwine.com

Paris, October 28th 2021 — iDealwine, the global online leader in fine wine auctions, has announced a private collection for sale at auction, closing November 3rd 2021. It features an impressive selection of the finest Bordeaux wine.

From the cellar of an exclusive wine club for connoisseurs...

The entire collection was sourced from the cellar of a private club of wine connoisseurs. Of impeccable provenance, the club purchased its bottles en primeur or direct from negociants on the Place de Bordeaux. The wine has been stored in ideal, temperature-controlled conditions, underground.

Best of the Left Bank

The private collection includes the most prestigious names from Bordeaux Left Bank. From the First Growths are lots of 1988 and 1990 Château Haut-Brion, various vintages of Château Mouton-Rothschild including 1990, Château Margaux in both older (1993) and more recent (2006, 2012) vintages, 1990 Château Lafite-Rothschild and 2001 Château Latour.

First Growths aside, there are many other highly sought-after names: Château Léoville Las Cases (including the legendary 1982 vintage); 1989, 2000 or 2005 Beychevelle; 2009 or 1989 Ducru Beaucaillou; Clos d'Estournel in numerous vintages, Pontet-Canet and more...

Some of Pessac-Leognan's finest names are listed in the catalogue, with bottles from the Domaine de Chevalier, Château Pape-Clément, Château Smith Haut Lafitte, and Château Haut-Bailly.

Rarest of the Right Bank

This private collection boasts some of Bordeaux Right Bank's rarest bottles, most notably from Pomerol. Château l'Évangile (2000 and 2005), La Fleur Petrus (2015), and La Conseillante (2004) will all go under the hammer. From Saint Emilion, Châteaux Angélu, Cheval Blanc, and Figeac all feature in the finest vintages.

Comprising over 1,000 lots, prices in this private collection begin at just €14. Currently open for bids on iDealwine.com, the hammer falls Wednesday 3 November from 9am GMT/ 10am Paris / 4pm Hong Kong.
